Purpose and scope of the inspection

This inspection was carried out by Ofsted under Section 162A of the Education Act 2002, as amended by schedule 8 of the Education Act 2005.<sup>1,2</sup>

The inspection was conducted at the request of the Registration Authority for independent schools in order to monitor the progress the school has made in implementing its action plan following the previous inspection.

Information about the school

Staleydene Preparatory School is a small, non-selective day school that opened in 2002. It is registered for pupils from age three to 11 years. There are 13 pupils currently on roll, none of whom has a statement of special educational needs. Since 2004, the school has been in its present location in Tameside. Pupils are taught in two mixed-age classes: a Key Stage 1 class and a Key Stage 2 class. There is one child in the Early Years Foundation Stage who is being taught in Key Stage 1 class.

The school seeks to provide a friendly, family atmosphere in which pupils can learn and build a strong foundation in basic skills. The last inspection of the school was in March 2010.

Context of the inspection

Summary of the progress made in implementing the action plan

Compliance with regulatory requirements

The school has made good progress and now meets all regulatory requirements. (or)

As a result of this inspection, the school must take action to meet The Education (Independent School Standards) (England) Regulations 2010<sup>3</sup> ('the Regulations'), as follows:
