The provision meets requirements

- The manager has a good knowledge and understanding of the Early Years Foundation Stage requirements. Staff are clear about providing children with enjoyable activities and play opportunities.
- Staff provide a wide range of resources, which are easily accessible to children. Staff know that working closely with children's teachers from the school helps to complement children's learning.
- Staff have a good understanding of how to promote children's well-being. They understand how to promote children's good health by providing healthy, nutritious food and to ensure that they have daily outdoor experiences.
- The manager shows a good awareness of how to promote children's safety. For example, she understands how to complete a thorough risk assessment and has measures to reduce any hazards.
- The manager has a secure understanding of the importance of working in partnership with parents and other professionals involved with children.
- Staff understand their responsibilities in meeting the safeguarding and welfare requirements of the Early Years Foundation Stage. They clearly understand the signs and symptoms that may indicate children are at risk of harm and know when to report any concerns.
- The manager has an effective system for checking practice, which ensures the club is always evolving and improving. She supports staff in their professional development through supervision, during which they identify areas for development.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.
