Summary of key findings for parents

This provision meets requirements

- The leadership and management team know how to work in partnership with parents and other professionals to promote consistency in children's care, including those who have special educational needs and/or disabilities.
- The manager has a secure knowledge and understanding of her responsibility to safeguard children, including how to check staff's suitability to work with children and report concerns regarding children's welfare.
- Leaders and managers have effective systems for the monitoring, tracking and assessments of children's learning and development.
- The manager is aware of her role to maintain children's good health. She knows how to support children's understanding of diversity and develop their independence.
- The manager has a good understanding of the Early Years Foundation Stage. She knows how to plan interesting activities based on the children's interests.
- The leadership and management team understand the importance of self-evaluation to reflect on their strengths and weaknesses. For example, they plan regular training to enhance staff's knowledge further.

There were no children present when this inspection took place. The findings in this report are based on evidence gathered from discussions with those who care for the children and an inspection of the premises, equipment and relevant documentation. Where there are no children present, no judgement is made on the quality of the early years provision as there is no reliable evidence on which to assess its impact on children. The report states whether the provider continues to meet the requirements of registration.

Inspection activities

- The inspector checked the suitability of the premises.
- The inspector sampled children's records and care information.
- The inspector held discussions with the manager about her procedures for safeguarding children.
- The inspector assessed the managers understanding of providing appropriate resources and activities for children at different stages of development.
